Mostly c: You are not alone! You should talk to your parents or someone you trust. He or she can help you. Remember, you shouldn't feel sad all the time.

At the hospital

Doctor: Ok, let me ask you some questions first.

Franco: Sure.

Doctor: How often do you eat fruits and vegetables?

Franco: I hardly ever eat fruits and vegetables. I mostly eat meat and rice.

Doctor: How often do you use your cell phone?

Franco: I am always on my cell phone. I need it to contact my friends and do my homework.

Franco: I drink soda regularly. I love it.

LET'S PRACTISE!

¡NOTEMOS ALGO!

Lee los dos textos otra vez. Identifica al verbo modal "should" y su forma negativa "shouldn't".
¿Para qué utilizamos este verbo? Colorea las dos opciones que mejor describa su función:

Para brindar
recomendaciones

Para dar órdenes

Para dar consejos

1. Después del verbo "should" o "shouldn't" va la palabra "to". ¿Verdadero o falso?
2. Antes de "should" o "shouldn't" usualmente va el sujeto. ¿Verdadero o falso?

PRACTISE - EXERCISE 2 - Listening comprehension

Listen to the following interview with a doctor who gives some recommendations to improve our mental health. Check (✓) only the recommendations that you hear. You will hear the interview twice. Number 1 is an example:

1. Teenagers should go to bed earlier.

2. Teenagers should eat fast food less often.

3. Teenagers shouldn't play video games.

4. We should exercise more often.

5. Teenagers should play in their backyard.

6. Teenagers should watch TV less often.

Interviewer: Good morning Dr. Richards. Mental health is an important issue, especially these days. Our question today is: How can teenagers improve their mental health? Do you have any recommendations?

Doctor: Good morning and thank you for the interview. Well, teenagers usually stay up late playing video games or checking their cell phones. So, my first recommendation is that they should go to bed earlier. It's important for teenagers to sleep at least 8 hours a night.

Interviewer: That is really important. What about food? Can food influence our mental health?

Doctor: Yes, nowadays, some parents work too much and sometimes they buy fast food instead of cooking because it's less complicated. Teenagers should eat fast food less often. They should eat more fruits and vegetables. At least three servings of fruits or vegetables a day can help improve mental health.

Interviewer: Great! So we have to eat healthy! What about physical activities?

Doctor: During the lockdown it is difficult to exercise and we spend a lot of time in front of screens, but we should exercise more often. At the very least, we should stand up every 40 minutes and stretch.

Interviewer: Thank you, doctor. This has been very informative. If we follow these simple recommendations, we can improve our mental health.
