

Draw a line from the type of verb to the definition and the examples. (use the video for information).

Transitive verbs

A type of action verb that DOESN'T have an object on which the action is being performed

She is painting right now.

Intransitive verbs

tells the state of mind of the subject or a relationship between the subject and the object of the sentence.

She likes coffee.

Dynamic verbs

a type of action verb that has a definite object which the action is being performed

She is painting the kitchen walls.

Stative verbs

connect the subject to a noun or adjective. (Also called "helping verbs")

She is happy to help.

Linking verbs

shows action done by the subject of the sentence.

She buys coffee every morning.

Drag the correct verb and drop it into the the box that corresponds with the correct verb tense. (use the video for information).

am studying	will have studied	had studied	studied	have studied
English verb tenses	past	present	future	will have been studying
simple				was studying
continuous				study
perfect				will be studying
Perfect continuous				have been studying
				will study
				had been studying