

B

Fill in the missing letters of the alphabet on each line.

Example:

O _ P _ Q _ R _ S _

1 B _ _ E _

2 _ _ X _ _

3 _ _ L _

4 _ _ ST _

5 _ G _ _ J

Does your dictionary have chapters or paragraphs? Do you know why? If not, ask someone who can tell you.

C

Answer these alphabet questions by using the prepositions as clues.

1 What letter comes before L and after J? _

2 What letter comes after the first letter but directly before the last letter? _

3 What letters come in between D and G? _

4 What letter comes after the second vowel? _

5 What letters are on either side of U? _

6 What vowel is next to T? _

Remember that a preposition tells you where an object or person is placed, e.g. 'I'm standing on the grass beside my friend'.
