

For Want of a Nail

--

Put in the correct order.

1		The battle was lost.
2		The horse was lost.
3		The nail was lost.
4		The rider was lost.
5		The kingdom was lost.
6		The horse shoe was lost.

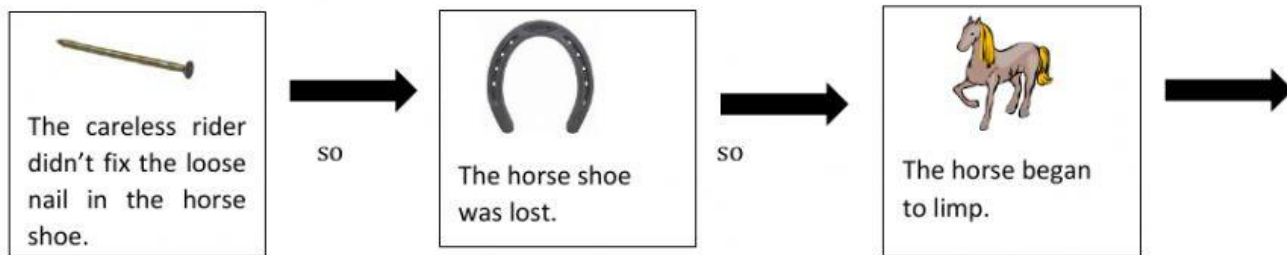

Cause and Effect

- The cat was hungry so it drank up the milk.
- Because the cat was hungry, it drank up the milk.
- The cat drank up the milk as/ for it was hungry.

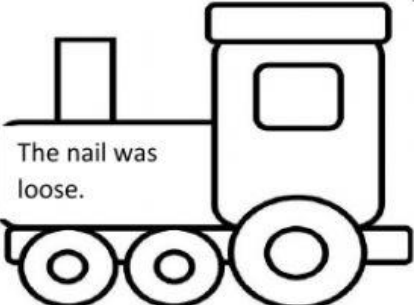

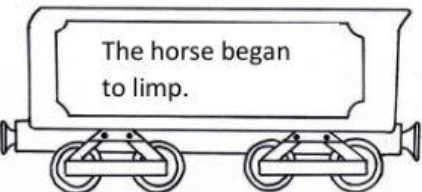

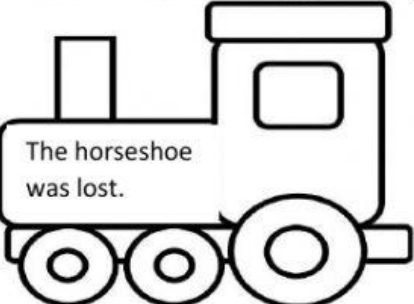

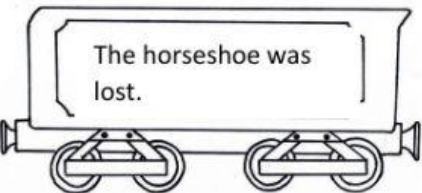

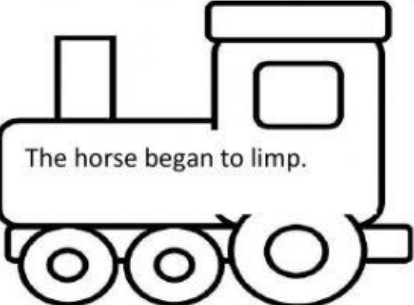

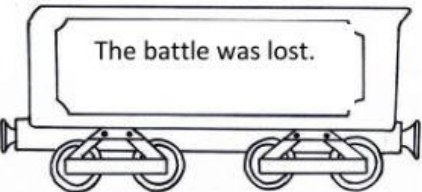

Cause: (reason) The cat was hungry.

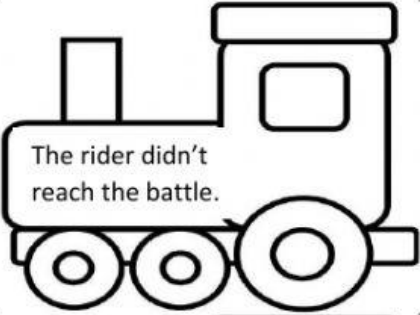

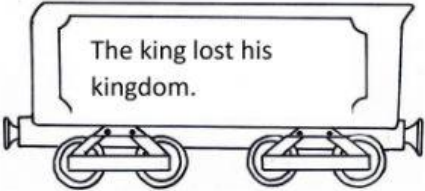

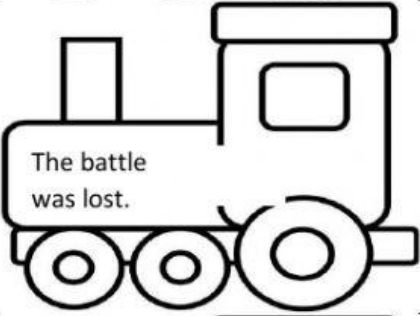

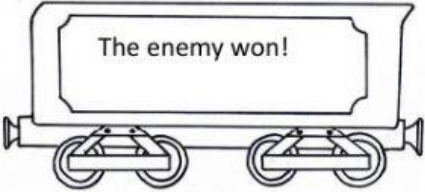

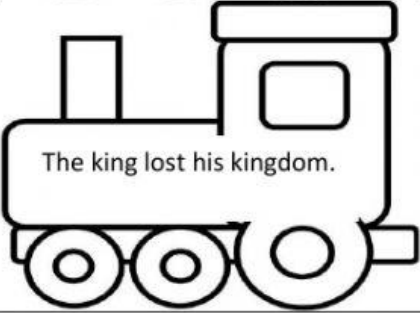

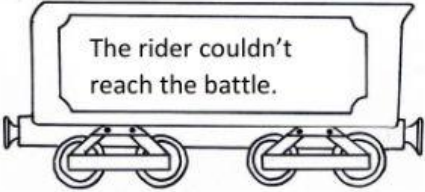

Effect: (result – what happens) It drank up the milk.

To show cause and effect we can use: because, as, for, so

Match the cause (reason) with the effect (result)

Reason		Result
 The nail was loose.		 The horse began to limp.
 The horseshoe was lost.		 The horseshoe was lost.
 The horse began to limp.		 The battle was lost.

 The rider didn't reach the battle.		 The king lost his kingdom.
 The battle was lost.		 The enemy won!
 The king lost his kingdom.		 The rider couldn't reach the battle.

