

Find the Helping Verbs and Action Verbs in the following sentences.

a. The lady had asked for baking powder.

|               |              |
|---------------|--------------|
| Helping verb: | Action Verb: |
|---------------|--------------|

b. Fred will travel to Turkey.

|               |              |
|---------------|--------------|
| Helping verb: | Action Verb: |
|---------------|--------------|

c. Justin was cooking pasta.

|               |              |
|---------------|--------------|
| Helping verb: | Action Verb: |
|---------------|--------------|

d. I will add a little more pepper.

|               |              |
|---------------|--------------|
| Helping verb: | Action Verb: |
|---------------|--------------|

e. Henry has picked some fresh cucumbers.

|               |              |
|---------------|--------------|
| Helping verb: | Action Verb: |
|---------------|--------------|

f. Alison had planted many flowers in her garden.

|               |              |
|---------------|--------------|
| Helping verb: | Action Verb: |
|---------------|--------------|

g. They are planning another picnic.

|               |              |
|---------------|--------------|
| Helping verb: | Action Verb: |
|---------------|--------------|

h. What will happen to the doughnuts?

|               |              |
|---------------|--------------|
| Helping verb: | Action Verb: |
|---------------|--------------|

i. Jennie is wearing an apron.

|               |              |
|---------------|--------------|
| Helping verb: | Action Verb: |
|---------------|--------------|

j. Can you help me?

|               |              |
|---------------|--------------|
| Helping verb: | Action Verb: |
|---------------|--------------|