

PHRASES WITH TAKE

Look at these guys! They are talking about an argument one of them had with another friend. Read their dialogue and complete it with the phrases (a-e) in the box.

- a. Don't take him seriously.
- b. Take your time.
- c. I can't take it anymore.
- d. Take it easy.
- e. It'll help take your mind off things.

- A: That's the last time I'm going anywhere with Fred! He's so annoying. (1)
- B: What's he done now?
- A: He was making fun of my new jacket all day.
- B: He just likes to wind people up. (2)
- A: I try not to. But sometimes he really winds me up! I'm never going to go anywhere with him again.
- B: (3) You're best friends. There's no need to fight over such a silly thing.
- A: Maybe you're right.
- B: Hey, let's relax and play some computer games. (4)
- A: That's a good idea. But I have to make a phone call first.
- B: No problem. (5) I'll practice while I'm waiting.

2) Now, these guys are doing their homework in order to practice PHRASES WITH TAKE. Read the sentences and complete them with the words in the box.

WHAT

CONTROL

PART

PLACE

WAY

TIME

1. Ten singers will take _____ in Sunday's final of the talent contest.
2. The TV awards ceremony will take _____ at a theater in Los Angeles.
3. Now, I don't want you to take this the wrong _____, but I'd rather eat lunch alone.
4. Do you think you have _____ it takes to become an actor?
5. The actress is taking some _____ off before filming her next TV show.
6. Since Richard Timmons took _____ of this TV channel, the shows have improved greatly.