Choose the correct synonym for the words.

Felidae is the biological family of the cats (carnivore _____ order); a member of this family is called a felid. The most familiar _____ felid is the domestic cat, which first became associated _____ humans about 10,000 years ago, but the family includes _____ all other wild cats, including the big cats.

The home cats are best known for their true companionship _____ and aptitude _____for hunting vermin _____.

The cats are predominantly _____ nocturnal _____ .

As far as anatomy is concerned, cats are closely related to the large felids as they both exhibit robust _____ yet flexible bodies together with the pointed retractable _____ claws.

The cats teeth are perfectly adapted to killing small prey_____ . They employ _____ their keen _____ sense of hearing and smell to locate their prey in complete darkness.

Another interesting fact about these animals is that they are proficient enough to hear sounds greater in frequency _____ that humans cannot perceive_____.

Normally, cats are perceived as solitary _____ hunters.

They're also known to produce different vocalizations such as meowing, trilling, grunting, and hissing.