

Funny summary of Brave New World

Why is this novel considered dystopian literature?

Point out the aspects that underline a dystopia by matching the phrases.

(Point out = find and explain, give examples from the text in your own words)

<https://youtu.be/raqVySPrDUE>

Technological control starts with		loss of individualism which is why Bernard wonders what life outside among the savages is like.
The drug soma has		birth because all people are genetically designed, come from test tubes and are conditioned to enforce class distinctions
Bernard does not like his		the status of a religion used by the government to prevent any bad feelings making soma the most important means of governmental control
Constant consumption is		a means of governmental control
The government and the economy exert		control by promoting promiscuity to ensure societal stability because this way there is always somebody who puts your strongest emotions in check