

1 Read the statements carefully and think about the meaning. Then choose the correct words in italics in the explanations.

- 1 'If we'd missed that flight, we wouldn't be on the beach now.'
We are / aren't on the beach now. We missed / didn't miss the flight.
- 2 'If she wanted to see you again, she would have phoned by now.'
She has / hasn't phoned. She probably does / doesn't want to see you again.
- 3 'If we'd taken out the warranty, we wouldn't need to pay for these repairs.'
We took / didn't take out a warranty so we have to / don't have to pay for these repairs.
- 4 'I'd ask for a refund if I were you.'
I'm talking about the past / giving advice.
- 5 'We'd get a lot more light if there wasn't a huge tree in our back garden.'
There is / used to be a big tree in our garden.
- 6 'You'd be able to spend more time with the children if you changed to a part-time job.'
I think you are likely / unlikely to change your job.
- 7 'If we knew more about computers, we wouldn't have had to call the technical helpline.'
We had to / didn't have to call the helpline because we didn't / don't know much about computers.
- 8 'We'd have a less stressful life if we didn't live so far from the office.'
I'm expressing a regret about a past / present situation.
