Simple past of regular verbs

Affirmative

He hated dogs.

He stopped the man.

He hurried to the house.

Negative

He didn't hate cats.

He didn't stop the dog.

He didn't hurry to the car.

Questions

What did the dog chase?

Did it chase a cat?

Short answers

A cat.

Yes, it did.

No, it didn't.

Note

To make an affirmative simple past form, we usually add -ed or -d to the base form. For some verbs, we also double the final consonant (stop → stopped).

For other verbs, we change y to i (hurry → hurried).

2 Write in your notebook the simple past form of the verbs. Be careful with the spelling of carry, drop, reply, and stop.
