Last Saturday, 30 , was Jim's birthday. He decided to go to the city centre with Peter to have lunch in an expensive and to go to the cinema to see a film. They went to the station at past nine on Saturday morning and caught the train from platform 1. They didn't know the city very well and they didn't have a map so they decided to explore. When they were walking along a long road, they turned , not right, and got lost. When they were trying to find the right street, they saw hotels, post offices, gyms and museums, but no restaurants. At ten past two, they found a small café. They were really hungry, so they stopped there and had a burger and chips for lunch. When they got to the cinema, they found it showing the action film they wanted to see – it was showing a cartoon about funny animals for very young children. They were back to the station when it started to rain heavily and they didn't have any coats. Jim thought that his birthday was the biggest disaster ever, but then Peter started to laugh loudly and they agreed it was the funniest birthday ever.
