Beane (Pitt) manages a small team with financial problems and an unsuccessful record. One day, at a game, he meets an economics graduate who has got an unusual strategy for success. Beane decides to try out his strategy, and the pair work together to change the team's fortune.

I really enjoyed this film from start to finish. I found the plot very original and entertaining. Brad Pitt was excellent as the team's manager, and overall the performances were very good. It is one of the best sports films of recent years. I recommend it to all sports fans.
