

Name _____

Theme: Module 2. The Animal World

provide cover

home

lack shelter

areas

drop insects

A They are one of nature's treasures. They are 1) _____ with a lot of trees and 2) _____ about 30% of the Earth's land surface. They provide food and 3) _____ to people and animals.

B They take up 70% of the Earth's surface. They are 4) _____ to some of the most amazing creatures on Earth. They 5) _____ 50% of the Earth's oxygen.

C They occupy 1/5 of the Earth's land surface. It rarely rains there. Reptiles, 6) _____, birds and mammals live there. They are hot and there is a 7) _____ of water and plants. However, temperatures 8) _____ at night.

2 b) Which of the pictures 1-9 in the SHOW PICS button does each text refer to? CHECK

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

A

They are one of nature's treasures. They are areas with a lot of trees and cover about 30% of the Earth's land surface. They provide food and shelter to people and animals.

B

They take up 70% of the Earth's surface. They are home to some of the most amazing creatures on Earth. They provide 50% of the Earth's oxygen.

C

They occupy 1/5 of the Earth's land surface. It rarely rains there. Reptiles, insects, birds and mammals live there. They are hot and there is a lack of water and plants. However, temperatures drop at night.