

LISTENING EXAM

October

Listen to the text and choose the correct answer.

1. Tick ✓ the things that make up your identity.

<input type="checkbox"/> Ethnicity	<input type="checkbox"/> Language
<input type="checkbox"/> Religion	<input type="checkbox"/> Education
<input type="checkbox"/> Sports	<input type="checkbox"/> Health
<input type="checkbox"/> Personality	<input type="checkbox"/> Hobbies

2. When you have a strong sense of identity and feel confident about who you are, you are more likely to succeed. Write TRUE or FALSE

3. To create your personality it is not important to know who you are and what your values are. Write TRUE or FALSE

4. Finish the sentence:

One way to learn more about yourself and your identity is to think about your _____.

5. Values are: (write the letter)

- a) a group of characteristics, ideas or areas in life that are irrelevant to you.
- b) a group of characteristics, ideas or areas in life that are not important to you.
- c) a group of characteristics, ideas or areas in life that are important to you.

6. Some of your values include: (write the letter)

- a) education, ethnicity, language, religion, personality, hobbies.
- b) honesty, generosity, good manners, determination, creativity, leadership, and loyalty.
- c) education, honesty, language, generosity, religion, good manners, personality.

7. Finish the sentence:

*Writing a list of all the things you love will help you get in touch with _____
_____.*

8. Choose the correct answer. (Write the letter)

_____ help to create the colorful world that we enjoy every day.

- a) Cultures and languages
- b) Sports and religion
- c) Education and health

9. Finish the sentence:

The exciting thing about the world is that everyone is totally _____.

10. The most important thing about identity is: (write the letter)

- a) not to stay true to yourself or your values.
- b) to stay true to your friends' values.
- c) to stay true to yourself and your values.