Direct and Indirect Objects & Four Types of Sentences

Directions: Identify the underlined word or words in each sentence as one of the following:

1 = A direct object 2 = An indirect object 3 = Neither a direct nor an indirect object

____ 1. Dressed as a ghost for Halloween, Jake scared his sister.

____ 2. Victor gave a candybar to the child dressed as a frog.

____ 3. The counselor provided feedback to the students about their surveys.

____ 4. Frank tossed Kyle the ball.

____ 5. Baltimore is a city that I like to visit in December.

____ 6. The chemistry teacher always assigns his classes lots of homework.

____ 7. Emory brought Edna some cheese from his travels around Europe.

____ 8. After Nick ate the rest of the pizza, he put the leftovers into the refrigerator.

____ 9. Colin passed the basketball to Ralph during the last second of the game.

____ 10. The Baltimore Ravens attempted a field goal in the final play of the game.

Directions: Identify each sentence as one of the following:

1 = Declarative 2 = Exclamatory 3 = Imperative 4 = Interrogative

____1. Start the movie as soon as you get home.
____2. There were only four seconds left in the game.
____3. What a beautiful picture to hang on our wall!
____4. Will you please lock the door when you leave?
____5. My uncle had six toes on one foot.
____6. I can't hear you!
____7. Finish your homework before you start playing a video game.
____8. Fourteen of the dishes on the menu were extremely spicy.
____9. What happened?
____10. Quit bothering your brother!