

Speaking test

Choose one of the following topics to speak about.

Direction: 1- select the topic you like.

2- jot down your thoughts before you speak.

3- Click the microphone and record your speech in two to three minutes.

Topics:

A) A summary of a story you like, showing the conflict and the way the hero used to solve it.

B) Your free time activities.

C) The advantages and disadvantages of distance learning.

	Excellent 4 pts	Good 3 pts	Fair 2 pts	Poor 1 pts
PRONUNCIATION	Excellent Pronounces most letters and words correctly and speaks clearly (1-2 errors)	Good Pronounces many of the letters and words correctly and speaks clearly (3-4 errors)	Fair Speaks clearly; mispronounces some letters and words (5-6 errors)	Poor Difficult to understand, is struggling or mispronounces most words (more than 6 errors)
VOCABULARY and GRAMMAR 5 sentences of irregulars	Excellent Appropriately uses correct vocabulary and grammar (present, preterit and question strategies)	Good Appropriately uses correct vocabulary and grammar most of the time (1-2 errors)	Fair Sometimes appropriately uses correct vocabulary and grammar (3-4 errors)	Poor Rarely uses or doesn't appropriately use correct vocabulary and grammar (more than 5 errors)
FLUENCY	Excellent Responds immediately without any pauses	Good Responds quickly with some pauses	Fair Responds with some flow; somewhat struggles when responding and takes long pauses	Poor Responds with very little flow or none at all; takes constant pauses	