What? How? Where?

Complete the conversation with the missing questions or answers.

Pam: What do you think life will be like in the year 2045, Max? ?

Max: I think people will live in flying houses. They will be big and very modern.

Pam:

Max: Well, people will travel by heli buses. These buses will be faster and safer than normal buses.

Pam: And what about food? What will people eat?

Max:

Pam: And where will people study? Will schools exist in the future?

Max: No, they won't. People
