

PRESENT TENSES

SIMPLE / CONTINUOUS / PERFECT / PERFECT CONTINUOUS

DIRECTIONS: Draw a line from the sentence to the correct tense being used.

SIMPLE

I have been working for 10 hours.

CONTINUOUS

I work every Monday. .

PERFECT

He is riding his bike .

PERFECT CONTINUOUS

He has ridden his bike for years .

Simple perfect vs. Simple perfect continuous

DIRECTIONS: write the appropriate form of the auxiliary verb has/have, plus the past or present participle of the main verb. (don't forget to use "been" if needed) :)

EX> I have been drinking coffee all morning . (drink)

EX> He has repaired the sink. (repair)

1. I _____ English for 16 years.

teach

2. The kids _____ since morning.

play

3. He _____ the sink.

fix

4. I _____ this class for one hour.

teach

5. He _____ the sink for 4 hours.

fix

6. It _____ three days to prepare this lesson.

take

7. I _____ this lesson for three days.

prepare

8. The kids _____ for two hours.

play