EUROPA PARK

Looking for ideas for a great day trip? Trying to find the perfect family holiday? You'll find thrills and chills for all the family at Europa-Park! It's the biggest and most thrilling theme park in Germany!

5 Located in the beautiful gardens of the historic Balthasar Castle, it has over 100 attractions and fascinating shows.

This year give your family their best holiday ever at Europa-Park! The rides are better than ever, we've never had as much fun as 10 we had at Europa-Park!

Thrills

No other tourist destination in Germany is as thrilling as Europa-Park. See twelve exciting European destinations in one day! Visitors can stroll around the various attractions or ride on the Europa-Park train. The tour begins at the train station in 15 Germany and takes you through twelve exciting European destinations. First stop, Italy, where there's spine-chilling fun in our scariest attraction, the Ghost Castle of the Medici. Then it's off to France for a ride on Silver Star – Europe's highest and biggest roller coaster. Next, we go to England for a 20 fantastic Football experience that offers sport and entertainment for the whole family. Have fun in the Football Scooters – cars designed in the shape of the latest sports shoes – or watch exciting games on large screens in the futuristic 'Arena of Football'.
25 Younger visitors will enjoy an archaeological excavation in Greece where they can experience their first roller coaster ride in Pegasus. After that, the tour visits Portugal, where a massive new sailing ship waits in the harbour. It's the impressive entrance to the Atlantica SuperSplash water-coaster. Visitors of all ages can learn about shipbuilding and see the captain's cabin 30 on this model of a sixteenth-century ship. If you would rather have a more comfortable experience check out the sights, sounds and smells of the Magic Cinema with more than 440 interactive seats. Our newest attraction is Atlantis Adventure, an interactive indoor ride for the whole family.
