

Look at the pictures and choose the correct type of family it represents:

This family consists of parents, children and other members like grandparents, uncles, aunts and cousins.

What type of family is this? _____

This family consists of adopted children.

What type of family is this? _____

This family consists of a mother, a father and children.

What type of family is this? _____

This family consists of a father and a mother with children from previous relationships.

What type of family is this? _____

This family consists of only the mother or only the father with the children.

What type of family is this? _____

This family consists of parents from two different cultures.

What type of family is this? _____