

Name: _____ Date: _____

Identifying the Main Idea and Details

Directions: Read the passage then fill out the main idea chart. Write three supporting details for the main idea.

The islands of The Bahamas are an archipelago that has many historical sites and landmarks. An archipelago is a group of islands surrounded by water. Nassau New Providence is the capital city. On the beautiful island of Nassau you can find many historical building and landmarks such as: The Government House, Fort Fincastle, Pompey Museum, Fort Montagu and many more.

The island of Freeport Grand Bahama is the most Northerly Island and known as the nation's second city. On the island of Freeport you can find historical sites such as The St. Vincent De Paul Church, Coopers' Castle, Casuarina Bridge, and Count Basie Square.

The "Sleeping Giant" the island of Andros is the largest island of The Bahamas. Andros has three main islands separated by 'bights'. They are North Andros, Mangrove Cay, and South Andros. On the island of Andros you can visit the Village Path, The Semiramis Shipwreck, Faneromenis Castle and Ag Trianda.

The islands of the Bahamas have a rich history filled with many historical treasures. Travel the islands and the many cays that make up this exotic archipelago.

Main Idea

Supporting Details

Supporting Details

Supporting Details

--	--	--