

Present simple: is used to speak about our daily routines

Affirmative sentences

|                                                                                                                  |       |         |                    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|---------|--------------------|
|  Rules   |       |         |                    |
| verb ending in -o                                                                                         | do    | does    | verb + -es  |
|                                                                                                                  | go    | goes    |                    |
| verb ending in -s, -sh, ch, -x)                                                                           | watch | watches | verb + -es  |
|                                                                                                                  | kiss  | kisses  |                    |
|                                                                                                                  | wash  | washes  |                    |
| verb ending in consonant + -y                                                                      | fly   | flies   | verb + -ies |
|                                                                                                                  | try   | tries   |                    |
| verb ending in vowel + -y                                                                          | play  | plays   | verb + -s   |
|                                                                                                                  | say   | says    |                    |

POSITIVE SENTENCES

- WHEN HE, SHE OR IT IS DOING THE ACTION, REMEMBER TO ADD:

HE, SHE, IT

S
ES
IES

Look

I

get up

at eight o' clock.

He

gets up

at eight o' clock.

Look

I

watch

TV

after lunch.

She

watches

TV

after lunch.

Negative sentences

Look

|                        |                |                                               |                   |
|------------------------|----------------|-----------------------------------------------|-------------------|
| Iyouwethey | don't   | takelookrunlove                   | don't +verb   |
| hesheit        | doesn't | take slook srunlove | doesn't +verb |

NEGATIVE SENTENCES

I, YOU, WE, THEY ↔ DON'T

HE, SHE, IT ↔ DOESN'T

NOTE: WE DON'T ADD THE LETTERS

✗

EXAMPLES

I

SHE

THEY NEED

WATCHES

HAVE DINNER

A NEW PAIR OF SHOES.

TV IN THE KITCHEN.

AT TEN O'CLOCK.

EXAMPLES

I

SHE

THEY Don't Doesn't

DON'T

DOESN'T

DON'T

NEED

TAKE

GO TO BED

A NEW PAIR OF SHOES

THE BUS TO WORK

EARLY

