

Subjects in Imperative and Interrogative Sentences

Write imperative or interrogative for each sentence. Then write the simple subject of the sentence on the line. Follow the example below. Abbreviate int for interrogative and imp for imperative:

Ex: Will you go to the field with me? int-you

1. Do your friends like to play tennis? _____
2. Will they take lessons with you? _____
3. Does your racket need to be restrung? _____
4. Please practice your serve. _____
5. Hold your racket with a firm grip. _____
6. Stand behind the base line, please. _____
7. Turn your shoulder toward the net. _____
8. Is your arm fully extended? _____
9. Did you keep your eye on the ball? _____
10. Follow through on your swing. _____
11. Did the ball land in the opposite court? _____
12. Can your opponent return the ball? _____
13. Pay attention so you don't get hit. _____
14. Lend me a hand with the equipment. _____
15. Is the score tied now? _____