

VOCABULARY

School Deductions

I'm very interested in what happened in the past. I think when you know about the past you can predict the future.

Alice

I really like grammar and all of its complicated or simple rules. I love how different languages have different rules.

Julie

Most people hate this but I love house chores. Especially cooking, organizing the money and recycling. I think we can do everything without destroying the planet.

Melissa

I'm crazy about numbers. The operations are always exact, and that to me is perfection.

William

I love to know about other countries, their cities, and population. When I grow up I want to travel a lot and visit all the places I only see on the maps.

Larry

I'm fascinated by how the substances mix together to form other substances.

Robert

Alice believes:

the past doesn't reflect the future.

we can predict what will happen based on what happened.

everything that happened will happen again.

Robert likes to:

learn how the mix of substances create others.

mix substances to see their colors.

understand the way substances disappear.

Melissa wants:

to be a teacher someday.

to work at home when she grows up.

to help the environment by recycling things.

Larry finds:

maps and countries boring.

maps difficult to understand.

maps and countries very interesting.

William prefers:

letters to numbers.

to work with numbers.

to understand countries and their people's culture.

Julie knows that:

every language has its own grammar rules.

all of the grammar rules are difficult.

all of the grammar rules are easy.

Based on the reading, can we say that:

Alice likes language?

Yes

No

Chemistry is Larry's favorite subject?

Yes

No

William understands Math?

Yes

No

Julie is interested in languages?

Yes

No

Larry likes Geography?

Yes

No

Math is Alice's favorite subject?

Yes

No

Home Economy is Melissa's favorite subject?

Yes

No

Chemistry is Robert's favorite subject?

Yes

No

What's your favorite school subject? Why?

--

Do you want to follow your parents' career? Why (not)?

--

What subject do you think is not necessary? Why?

--

What new subject do you think we should have in the future? Why?

--