Test your knowledge about E-learning

1. E-Learning is a form of learning conducted via:

a) Internet, internet, Intranet, or CD-ROM.

b) text messaging

c) mobile device

d) webinars

2. Which of the following statements about e-Learning are TRUE (Choose all that apply):

a) In order for eLearning courses to be successful, they must use standard templates that contain very little multimedia distraction.

b) Successful eLearning courses are interactive, energetic and dynamic.

c) E-Learning courses must appeal to the learner's auditory, visual, and tactile senses to ensure effective knowledge transfer.

d) E-Learning can be either synchronous or asynchronous.

3. Why can synchronous e-Learning be impractical, particularly among adult learners (Choose all that apply)?

a) It requires learners to attend at a specific time.

b) It requires audio and video conferencing capabilities.

c) It requires learners to attend at a time of their choosing.

d) It takes place in real time, making it hard to re-visit the content.

4. Asynchronous E-Learning allows learners to (Choose all that apply):

a) attend at any time.

b) ask live questions during the training.

c) pace themselves throughout the training.

d) use application sharing and video conferencing to communicate with the instructor.

e) learn via the use of forums, blogs and webcasts among other tools.

5. Identify the primary advantages of e-Learning (Choose all that apply):

a) Access to an instructor in real time.

b) Access courses at anytime, anywhere, at your own pace.

c) E-Learning allows you to access the material without an internet connection.

d) E-Learning allows you to go back and review course materials if you need to.