The document is a ⬚ postcard.

At the top of the postcard THERE is a title (which reads) "First day of school quiz".

So we know the document is (both) a postcard and a quiz.

On the left (=left handside) of the postcard, THERE is a list of names /roles or identities.

On the rest of the document THERE are six pictures of people (=characters/ faces)

We must match each role (identity) from the list on the left with their corresponding pictures by writing the letter before the identities, in the small squares (=boxes) in the top left-hand corner of the pictures.

I think the first person is the bus driver because he is driving.

(he is holding a driving wheel)

The second person must be the student (=pupil/schoolboy) because he has a backpack (=rucksack)

He doesn't look glad (= happy/pleased) to go back to school.

The third person is/seems to be the principal because he is wearing a red tie and a white shirt.

We know the fourth person is the teacher because she has a pencil and a notebook.

The fifth person is /seems to be the janitor because he is holding a broomstick and he is wearing   an overall .

The sixth person is (the only person who) is smiling

So, we can guess she is the mom . She is happy because her children are finally going back to school.
