

Complete the dialogues.

A:
B: What do you do?
A: I'm a babysitter.
B:
A: Babies cry all the time.
B: You have to change their diapers.
A: I have to feed them.
B:
A: No, I'm looking for another family.
B: Another family?
A: A family with only one baby.
B:

That's a good idea.

I don't like my job.

Are you looking for another job?

Is that a lot of work?

A: Do your students ever talk about their jobs?

B:

A: I tell my students to become a teacher.

B: Teaching is a great job.

A:

B: What makes it so good?

A: For me, it's the students.

B:

A: I mean I have wonderful students.

B: That must be nice.

A:

B: You're a lucky man to have a job you love.

Teaching is the best part of my whole day.

It's the best job I've ever had.

Yes, and they ask me what jobs are the best.

What do you mean?
