SECTION I
(READING COMPREHENSION)

(Q. NO 1 - 7) Read the following passage from the lesson "The Accidental Tourist".

Of all the things I am not very good at, living in the real world is perhaps the most outstanding. I am constantly filled with wonder at the number of things that other people do without any evident difficulty that are pretty much beyond me. I cannot tell you the number of times that I have gone looking for the lavatory in a cinema, for instance, and ended up standing in an alley on the wrong side of a self locking door. My particular speciality now is returning to hotel desks two or three times a day and asking what my room number is, I am, in short, easily confused.

I was thinking about this the last time we went en famille on a big trip. It was at Easter, and we were flying to England for a week. When we arrived at Logan Airport in Boston and were checking in, I suddenly remembered that I had recently joined British Airways' frequent flyer programme. I also remembered that I had put the card in my carry-on bag. And here's where the trouble started.

Now answer the following questions. Each question has four choices. Choose the correct option.

1. The passage is in the form of ...
A) Auto Biography
B) Biography
C) Narration

(Q No. 8 – 12) Read the following from the poem "Father Returning Home".

My father travels on the late evening train
 Standing among silent commuters in the yellow light
 Suburbs slid past his unseeing eyes
 his shirt and pants are soggy and his black raincoat
 Stained with mud and his bag stuff with books
 Is falling apart. His eyes dimmed by age
 Fade homeward through the humid monsoon night.
 Now I can see him getting off the train

Like a word dropped from a long sentence.
 He hurries across the length of the grey platform,
 Crosses the railway line, enters the lane,
 His chappals are sticky with mud, but he hurries onward.

Now, Choose the correct answer from the multiples.
