

III. Put the verbs in brackets in the correct form. Use modals where necessary.

I (watch) (1)_____ a film called "Magnificent Obsession" last night. It (make)(2)_____ in 1954 and it starred Rock Hudson and Jane Wyman. It is one of those mediocre movies people (watch) (3)_____ in the early 50s. "Magnificent Obsession" is about a handsome young racing- car driver played by Rock Hudson, who carelessly causes Ms. Wyman to go blind in a car crash. Rock is so depressed and feels so guilty that he decides (study)(4) _____ eye medicine at the University of Oxford for about 5 years. After (change)(5) _____ his name, Rock goes back to his home town. There, he tries to restore Jane's sight. Only she does not know it's him because she is blind, and a little slow because she (not- recognise)(6) _____ his voice. Needless to say, they fall in love and she gets her sight back. And that is the end of the story. Perhaps, I (not- have) (7)_____ all the details right because I (not- watch) (8)_____ this film on purpose last night. In fact, I came across it just by chance and because one of our cable channels (show)(9) _____ it 46 times since last week. This makes me wonder, why do we have almost 200 cable TV channels, if they keep (repeat)(10)_____ their shows?
