

Choose the correct answer

the part between the foreground and background.

Foreground

Middle ground

the part that appears farthest from the viewer in, between and around objects

Middle ground

Background

is the part that is at the very front and often near the bottom of the drawing

Foreground

Landscape

refers to the area and distance in, between and around objects.

Portrait

Space

is a picture that shows the natural scenery in the surroundings.

Landscape

Seascape

are positions of the different body parts specifically the hands, arms trunk, legs and feet.

Body Positions

Standing positions

---

Heel sitting

---

Frog sitting

---

Kneeling with knees together

---

Half-knee bend

---

Standing feet together

---

Stride standing Position

Long sitting rest

Stride sitting

Long sitting

Hook sitting

Long sitting rest

Stride sitting

Long sitting

Hook sitting

Kneeling with knees together

Stride kneeling

Half- kneeling

Kneeling with one leg extended

Lunge forward or sideward

Half-knee bend

Standing feet together

Cross sitting

Tuck sitting

Frog sitting

Heel sitting