On Halloween American children in elementary schools take their costumes and to school.

Typical Halloween costumes are the witch, ghost, skeleton, monster or alien.

Young people have fun making their own but some prefer to buy them.

In the afternoon the children put on their costumes and have a Halloween party Schools are decorated with ghosts, witches and bats. It is a popular tradition to make out of pumpkins. People put them in front of the of their homes. There are funny Halloween games such as bobbing for Favorite Halloween foods are candied apples, nuts, liquorice, popcorn and

American and British children and teenagers go "trick-or-treating" on Halloween

They go from house to house in their costumes and ring doorbells. When the door opens they shout,

"Trick or treat?" People usually give them sweets or If not, the children play a trick.

They write on windows with or spray on cars and people!
