

POWER

Powers

POWER

I. Executive powers-

- The President appoints the _____ or _____ who is the leader of the _____ or the _____ largest party in the _____
- The President appoints the _____ on the advice of the _____
- The President appoints the _____ and other high officials such as the _____ and the _____.
- The President appoints the judges of the _____ and the _____ and the ambassadors to other countries.

POWER

2. Military powers-

- The President is the Supreme Commander of the Defence Forces.
He/she can declare war and send the armed forces to any part of the world.
- All important military decisions are made in the President's name.

POWER

3. Judicial powers-

The judicial powers of the President are:

- The President has the power to the sentence of a person who has been found guilty.

- He/she can also

- He/she is not answerable to any court of law for his/her actions, except if he/she is by the Parliament.