Have something done

Study this example situation:

LISA

The roof of Lisa's house was damaged in a storm. Yesterday a workman came and repaired it.

Lisa had the roof repaired yesterday.

This means: Lisa arranged for somebody else to repair the roof. She didn't repair it herself.

We use have something done to say that we arrange for somebody else to do something for us. Compare:

- Lisa repaired the roof. (= she repaired it herself)
  Lisa had the roof repaired. (= she arranged for somebody else to repair it)
- 'Did you make those curtains yourself?' 'Yes, I enjoy making things.'
  'Did you have those curtains made?' 'No, I made them myself.'

Be careful with word order. The past participle (repaired/cut etc.) is after the object:

have	object	past participle
Lisa had	the roof	repaired yesterday.
Where did you have	your hair	cut?
Your hair looks nice. Have you had	it	cut?
Our neighbour has just had	a garage	built.
We are having	the house	painted at the moment.
How often do you have	your car	serviced?
I think you should have	that coat	cleaned.
I don't like having	my photograph	taken.
