

Lexington and Concord

Questions

____1. What made the Battles of Lexington and Concord significant?

- a. They were the LAST battles of the Revolutionary War.
- b. They were the FIRST battles of the Revolutionary War.
- c. They were both deadly battles in the Revolutionary War.

____2. Who fired the first shots in the Battle of Lexington?

- a. The British
- b. The Americans
- c. No one knows for sure.

____3. How were the militiamen warned that the British were coming?

- a. Pigeons
- b. Riders like Paul Revere
- c. Smoke signals.

____4. What did the Americans do after the British started to retreat?

- a. They harassed the British forces as they retreated and then surrounded Boston.
- b. They stayed in Concord hoping that the war was over.
- c. They went back to their homes.

____5. Around how many men died in the two battles?

- a. 50
- b. 10
- c. 100