

THE EARTHQUAKE - CHAPTER 5

Match the beginnings (a–o) and endings (i–xv) of these sentences from Chapter 5

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| (a) At the time of the earthquake,         | (i) a woman hit his arm.                     |
| (b) A lot of people wanted to buy tickets, | (ii) and find Mrs. Delgado.                  |
| (c) Gabriel was safe                       | (iii) and he fell to the ground.             |
| (d) Gabriel didn't see the buildings       | (iv) and his head, too.                      |
| (e) Some rubble hit him on the head        | (v) and looked round.                        |
| (f) He stood up slowly                     | (vi) and perhaps I'll hear news of Silvia.'  |
| (g) 'I can help Mrs. Delgado               | (vii) and sleep.'                            |
| (h) His right arm hurt very badly,         | (viii) and started to walk back into town.   |
| (i) By accident,                           | (ix) and they went inside.                   |
| (j) When Gabriel opened his eyes again,    | (x) 'and we haven't got medicines for all of |
| (k) 'Thousands of people are waiting for   | them.'                                       |
| help,' said a nurse,                       | (xi) because he waited outside.              |
| (l) 'Stay here quietly,                    | (xii) but he could walk.                     |
| (m) He had to go                           | (xiii) Gabriel was outside the Plaza.        |
| (n) He was weak,                           | (xiv) he felt very ill.                      |
| (o) Gabriel left the hospital              | (xv) when they fell                          |