

A) Listen and read.

Nada is from Florida. She's calling her friend Sarah in London.

Sarah: Hi Mary! How are you?

Nada: I'm OK, but have you heard about the tornado in Florida?

Sarah: No, I haven't. I've just got home from school. I haven't turned on the TV yet. Why?

Nada: The National Weather service has just issued a tornado watch.

Sarah: What does that mean?

Nada: It means there might be a tornado. The weather conditions are right.

Sarah: Have you prepared the house yet?

Nada: We haven't bought any extra food yet. Mom and Dad have already closed the shutters on the windows. And I've just put some new batteries in my flashlight. We've had tornadoes here before, so we know what to do.

Sarah: It sounds scary.

Nada: It's OK. What's the weather like in England?

Sarah: It's sunny.

Nada: Lucky you! I'll call you tomorrow and let you know what happened.

Sarah: OK. Good luck!
