

PROBLEM CARDS

My parents won't let me put make-up when I go to school.	I think one of my classmates suffers from bulimia. How can I help her?
I can't sleep because of my neighbour who plays the cello until 1 a.m.	My history teacher picks on me because of my piercing.
A group of girls troll me on Facebook. I don't know what to do.	My parents want me to go to law school but I'm interested in arts.
Yesterday I saw my best friend's boyfriend kissing another girl. Should I tell her?	My sister always takes my clothes without asking me first.
I got a bad mark in maths. I haven't told my parents yet because I'm afraid they'll ground me.	I think my parents read my text messages, but I can't prove it.

ISLCollective.com

Instructions: Read each card problem carefully. Write a suggestion using should or must for each situation. Start answering column 1 from 1 to 5 and then column 2 from 1 to five.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

Writing 2

Look at the pictures below. If you are given a choice, which place do you prefer to live?
Complete the graph with phrases describing entertainment, shops, services, and environment.
Then write a paragraph with 5 sentences describing and explaining your choice.

Living in the city

Living in the country

Writing 3

Look at the following picture. Write complete sentences with countable and uncountable nouns and with the following quantifiers: some, many, much, a lot, a few and a little.

A large, empty rectangular box intended for writing the answer to the prompt above.