

Put the scenes in the correct order:

TOY STORY 3

|     |     |     |     |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|     |     |     |     |
| 1st | 2nd | 3rd | 4th |

The toys went to Sunnyside in a box.

The aliens saved the toys from the fire.

Andy had to go to University and the Toys were sad.

Woody started a plan to escape back home.

ICE AGE 3

|     |     |     |     |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|     |     |     |     |
| 1st | 2nd | 3rd | 4th |

|                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                    |                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |  |
| They made a new friend: Buck                                               | Sid wanted to adopt three dinosaur eggs.                                   | Manny and Ellie had a baby mamut: Peaches                                   | Scratte got the acorn and escaped with it.                            |

DESPICABLE ME 2

|     |     |     |     |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|     |     |     |     |
| 1st | 2nd | 3rd | 4th |

|                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                    |                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |  |
| A giant magnet took the laboratory in Antartica away.                      | Gru discovered that Eduardo (El Macho) was a supervillan.           | Gru, Stuart, and Dave wanted to save the purple minions.                    | Gru and Lucy were new friends.                                               |

RATATOUILLE

|     |     |     |     |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|     |     |     |     |
| 1st | 2nd | 3rd | 4th |

Anton Ego ate
'Ratatouille' and loved it.

Remy helped Linguini with the cooking.

Gusteau's restaurant was closed because of the rats.

Remy wanted to be a professional chef.

FINDING NEMO

|     |     |     |     |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|     |     |     |     |
| 1st | 2nd | 3rd | 4th |

|                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                    |                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |  |
| Merlin and Dory travelled with tortoises.                                  | Merlin lost his son Nemo.                                                  | Dory spoke with whales.                                                     | Dory found Nemo.                                                             |