

Set 4: Vocabulary

Exercise1: Study these words.

| Word/ | Part ofspeech | Meaning                         | Synonyms | Antonyms |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| calculate                                                                                  | v.                | คิดคำนวณ                        | compute,reckon,figure...out                                                           | -                                                                                               |
| candid                                                                                     | adj.              | จริงใจ                          | honest,sincere,truthful                                                               | -                                                                                               |
| capitulate                                                                                 | v.                | ยอมแพ้/ยอมจำนนต่อ             | surrender to,submit to,be resigned to                                                 | resist,withstand,oppose to                                                              |
| captivate                                                                                  | v.                | ทำให้หลงใหล/ทำให้ประทับใจ | charm,attract,fascinate                                                               | bore,Tire,fatigue                                                                       |
| carnage                                                                                    | n.                | การสังหารหมู่                 | slaughter,massacre,holocaust                                                          | -                                                                                               |

| Word/🔊  | Part ofspeech | Meaning                         | Synonyms🔊                        | Antonyms🔊                      |
|-------------|-------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| catastrophe | n.                | ภัยพิบัติ/ความหายนะ                                                                                                  | disaster,calamity,fiasco     | -                                  |
| cautious    | adj.              | ซึ่งรอบคอบ/ซึ่งมีความระมัดระวัง | careful,prudent,judicious    | careless,reckless,heedless |
| censure     | v.                | ตำหนิ/ประณาม                   | blame...for...,condemnrebuke | approve,accept,acclaim     |
| ceremony    | n.                | พิธีการ/ งานเลี้ยง            | ritual,observance,function   | -                                  |
| certify     | v.                | ยืนยัน/รับรอง                 | verify,confirm,accredit      | cancel,annul,invalidate    |

Exercise2: Choose the correct alternative.

1. I hereby .....that the above information is true and accurate.

- a. certify                      b. censure                      c. captivate                      d. capitulate

2. He is too .....to be a great leader.

- a. carnage                      b. cautious                      c. censure                      d. catastrophe

3. Their forces .....five hours after the bombardment of the city began.

- a. candid                      b. cautious                      c. ceremony                      d. capitulated

4. A chemical plant leak could cause an environmental .....

- a. candid                      b. calculate                      c. ceremony                      d. catastrophe

5. The Battle of Gettysburg was a scene of dreadful.....

- a. certify                      b. candid                      c. carnage                      d. captivate

Do you feel good in doing an English test? I glad to hear "Yes."

"Don't ignore your own potential."

Keep practice more and more. Fighto.