

Week 36

English Mastery

Primary 2

The Write Tribe

CONNECTORS

NAME:

Teacher's comments:

PART 2

Adverbs
Fortunately

Adverbs like fortunately, unfortunately, luckily, suddenly, all of sudden and quickly helps to give direction to your reader on where the story is headed.

The cat was about to fall. Fortunately, we rescued it in the nick of time.

1. Sara fell off the ladder. She was not hurt. (Fortunately)

2. The house was on fire. The firemen arrived in the nick of time.
(Fortunately)

My neighbour got into an accident but fortunately he escaped by the skin of his teeth.

3. The boy fell into the river. He was rescued in the nick of time. (Fortunately)

Cause and effect

As a result

Cause and effect connectors are used to show consequences of an action. As a result, so, therefore and hence are some examples.

John played truant. As a result, he was punished.

1. Felix was caught cheating. He was suspended from school (As a result)

As a result of not completing my homework, I had to serve detention.

2. Joanne worked hard. She won the competition.

Spelling test

1. Feeling apprehensive, he _____.

2. Excited, she _____.

3. Tears streaming, Sue _____.

4. Ron angrily, _____.