

The sun is a large, yellow, smiling character with a wide, toothy grin and large, expressive eyes. It has a bright, glowing aura around it. A colorful rainbow arches across the sky, starting from the sun's right side and ending in the distance. The background features a blue sky with fluffy white clouds. In the foreground, there's a green grassy area with a winding yellow path. A small, colorful rainbow is visible on the right side of the path. The overall scene is bright and cheerful, typical of children's educational materials.
