

Fill in the blanks with words from the poem. Record yourself saying the words by clicking on the red microphone.

Grandma's House

Grandma's house is very small just a bedroom and a hall and a parlour full of _____ lots of clocks to tell the hours and a kitchen with _____ fast asleep upon a mat and a bathroom _____ full of towels soft and bright and a place to sit and dream down beside _____

Grandma's house is full of things _____ and things with wings, things with spouts and things with handles, _____ and _____ and fans and candles.

Grandma's house is _____,
but I love to go to call,

and to share _____
just my grandmama and me!

By,

Pamela Mordecai

#SHAMR