

Listening Comprehension Exercise

הקשיבו לשידור וענו על השאלות הבאות. עליכם לסמן את התשובה הנכונה.

BEDTIME STORIES — NOT JUST FOR CHILDREN

1. Why did John invite Susan Berger to his program?
 - i) To read a bedtime story on the radio.
 - ii) To help children fall asleep more easily.
 - iii) To talk about the stories she writes.
2. According to Susan, what problem do many adults have?
 - i) They don't want to go to sleep at night.
 - ii) They can't find stories that interest them.
 - iii) They can't fall asleep when they go to bed.
3. What does Susan explain about her stories?
 - i) Why they are not exciting.
 - ii) Why story tellers like to read them.
 - iii) Why there are no heroes.
4. What does Susan say about the sounds in the stories?
 - i) She uses only the sounds she likes.
 - ii) She gets them from story tellers.
 - iii) She uses nice sounds.
5. What happens at the end of Susan's stories?
 - i) The hero arrives at a beautiful place.
 - ii) The hero goes on a new trip.
 - iii) The hero explains why he loves the place.
6. Why doesn't Susan want the listeners to hear the end of the story?
 - i) She wants them to think of a new ending.
 - ii) She wants them to fall asleep before the story ends.
 - iii) She knows the end of the story is not interesting.