

ACROSS or THROUGH?

A verb followed by ACROSS or THROUGH means "traverser".

- ACROSS is used when it is about an area in 2 dimensions.
- THROUGH is used when it is about an area in 3 dimensions

For example : across the fields / through the forest when you swim, you swim across, not ~~through~~.

Exercise : Complete the expressions or sentences with across or through.

- 1 I don't like the dark, so I hate driving _____ tunnels.
- 2 She walked _____ the empty street.
- 3 When he was in Guyana, he walked 5 days _____ the jungle.
- 4 They swam _____ the lake before riding their bike for the triathlon race.
- 5 The student went _____ the empty corridor.
- 6 During the Paris to Dakar trail, contestants drive _____ the desert.
- 7 In Puducherry, Tom and Linda walked _____ local temples.
- 8 He was late, so he cut _____ the park.
- 9 Little Red Riding Hood had to walk _____ the forest to get to her grandmother's house.
- 10 Christopher Columbus sailed _____ the Atlantic Ocean.