

Name: _____

Date: _____

The Tale of Peter Rabbit, by Beatrix Potter

Guided Notes – Lesson 2

In The Tale of Peter Rabbit, how does the author use illustrations to show what is happening and create mood in the text?

Objective: In this lesson, you will learn how an author uses illustrations to help tell the story by looking and thinking about each picture.

Steps:

1. Go back to the text and look carefully at the illustrations.
2. Ask yourself, "What is happening and how does it make me feel?"
3. Write, "This illustration shows _____ and makes me feel _____."

Page 5:

1. Go back to the text and look carefully at the illustrations.

2. Ask yourself, "What is happening and how does it make me feel?"
(Recount, or summarize what is happening in the picture and think about how it makes you feel)
3. Write, "This illustration shows _____ and makes me feel _____."
(Jot down your notes in the space below)

This illustration shows _____

and makes me feel _____

Page 9:

1. Go back to the text and look carefully at the illustrations.

2. Ask yourself, "What is happening and how does it make me feel?"
(Recount, or summarize what is happening in the picture and think about how it makes you feel)
3. Write, "This illustration shows _____ and makes me feel _____."
(Jot down your notes in the space below)

This illustration shows _____

and makes me feel _____

Page 15:

1. Go back to the text and look carefully at the illustrations.

2. Ask yourself, "What is happening and how does it make me feel?"
(Recount, or summarize what is happening in the picture and think about how it makes you feel)
3. Write, "This illustration shows _____ and makes me feel _____."
(Jot down your notes in the space below)

This illustration shows _____

and makes me feel _____

Page 20:

1. Go back to the text and look carefully at the illustrations.

2. Ask yourself, "What is happening and how does it make me feel?"
(Recount, or summarize what is happening in the picture and think about how it makes you feel)
3. Write, "This illustration shows _____ and makes me feel _____."
(Jot down your notes in the space below)

This illustration shows _____

and makes me feel _____

Your Turn!

In The Tale of Peter Rabbit, how does the author use illustrations to show what is happening and create mood in the text?

1. Go back to the text and look carefully at the illustrations.
2. Ask yourself, "What is happening and how does it make me feel?"
3. Write, "This illustration shows _____ and makes me feel _____."

Page 11:

1. Go back to the text and look carefully at the illustrations.

2. Ask yourself, "What is happening and how does it make me feel?"
(Recount, or summarize what is happening in the picture and think about how it makes you feel)
3. Write, "This illustration shows _____ and makes me feel _____."
(Jot down your notes in the space below)

This illustration shows _____

and makes me feel _____
