

1 Match the sentence halves using numbers.

1. There's a lot of snow today, so
2. They say it'll rain this afternoon, so
3. I couldn't sleep last night because
4. I wanted to take a picture of a plane,
5. There is heavy fog this morning and
6. It's very hot today because
7. We can't play tennis today because

- ☐ but it went into a cloud.
- ☐ it's too windy.
- ☐ it's perfect for skiing.
- ☐ it's very sunny.
- ☐ of the noise from the storm.
- ☐ you can't see very far.
- ☐ take an umbrella to school.

2 Look at the icons and complete the sentences using adjectives.

1.  We had _____ weather on the ferry. The boat rocked all night!
2.  People think London is always _____, but it's not true.
3.  It's _____ today, so it's not a good day to go to the beach.
4.  It's a _____ day. Let's take photos of the animals at the zoo.
5.  The weather forecast said it will be _____ in the morning and dry in the afternoon.
6.  Close the windows! It's a _____ day today.
7.  We have always got _____ weather where I live. Perfect weather to make a snowman!

3 Circle the correct option.

Joe: Hi, Mum. At school, we've learned that there are volcanoes in our state.

(1) Do / Will we have a volcanic eruption one day?

Mum: No, it (2) isn't / won't happen.

Joe: But some volcanoes are active. There (3) was / will be a volcanic eruption one day.

Mum: Yes, but it (4) doesn't / won't be tomorrow or next week.

Joe: But it is possible!

Mum: Look, when there's an eruption, the government will (5) give / giving people information and help. There's nothing to worry about.

Joe: Are you sure?

Mum: I'm sure about one thing, Joe. You (6) won't / don't finish your homework tonight because you are worried about volcanoes!