

Fill in the blanks with the words given in the box below.

Teleworking
E-learning

E-commerce

ATM

Video Conferencing

E-banking

1. is when a person or a business, buy or sell over the Internet.
2. To work from home or a location close to home using computers and telecommunications facilities is called
3. refers to the use of Internet to perform bank transactions.
4. means to use a computer and ICT tools to learn from home.
5. An is a machine located outside the bank or at another location.
6. allows people from different locations to see and talk to each other using a computer and Internet facilities.