

Be careful when you write the names of the characters.

Comprehension

1 Match the characters with their pictures.

1 Dodds

2 Frank

3 Harold

4 Miss Fontaine

5 William

6 Wilson

2 Write the names of the characters.

1 This character acted like a detective.

2 This character didn't like William.

3 This character was the doorman.

4 This character's family was traveling.

5 This character caught the imposter.

6 This character has a brother named William.

7 This character stole the paintings.

3 Label the pictures.

butler missing publicity steal telegram thief

1

2

3

4

5

6

4 Citing Textual Evidence Scan the graphic novel. Answer the questions.

How do we know that...

1 ...Harold is afraid of Dodds?

2 ...Dodds didn't know his brother was the thief?

3 ...William didn't go to jail?

5 Foreshadowing Mark (✓) the examples of foreshadowing.

Think and discuss. What do the images foreshadow?

Foreshadowing

Foreshadowing is a way an author provides visual or written hints (clues) about what might happen next.

1

2

3

4

5