

SCIENCE 5 – FIRST QUARTER
WEEK 2 – DAY 1

CHALLENGE (EVALUATION)

Direction: Circle the letter of the correct answer

1. Gold can be shaped into rings. What property does gold have?
A. hardness B. strength C. brittleness D. malleability
2. Rubber bands can be used to secure things tightly because they can be stretched and can go back to their original shape. What property do rubber bands have?
A. hardness B. strength C. elasticity D. brittleness
3. Wood is made into chopping boards. What property does wood have?
A. hardness B. strength C. elasticity D. brittleness
4. Which solid material does not belong to the group?
A. Gold bracelet B. Silver ring C. Iron nail D. Plastic spoon
5. Why are metals very useful?
A. They are hard and can be made into different shape
B. They can produce good sound
C. They can be broken easily
D. They can be thrown away easily