Grammar Practice Name:
Unit 8 / Quantifiers

Select the correct word(s) in bold.

1. Do we have some/any ice cream?
2. Remind me to buy little/some milk on the way home.
3. Could I have a few/little more cake, please?
4. The Bakery didn't have any/some brown bread, so I had to buy white.
5. Invite your friend for dinner. We have plenty of /much food.
6. We'd better get some more apples. We only have a little/few left.
7. I shouldn't have had so much/many coffee. I'll never fall asleep.
8. There are no/any more cookies left. We've run out.

	AFFIRMATIVE	INTERROGATIVE	NEGATIVE	AFFIRMATIVE SENTENCE WITH NEGATIVE MEANING
THINGS	SOMETHING	ANYTHING	ANYTHING	NOTHING
PEOPLE	SOMEONE SOMEBODY	ANYONE ANYBODY	ANYONE ANYBODY	NO-ONE NOBODY
PLACES	SOMEWHERE	ANYWHERE	ANYWHERE	NOWHERE

We'd like something to eat. We're hungry!
You look worried! Is anything wrong?

There isn't anybody here!
There is nobody here!

Fill in the blanks with some, any, no or their compounds.

1. My favorite book isn't on the shelf. I must have left it to somebody/someone.
2. I'm afraid it's too late. There's _____ we can do now.
3. Do we have _____ ice cream left?
4. Jane was sure that she had seen him _____ before.
5. Did _____ call while I was out?
6. There are _____ oranges left. Would you like an apple instead?
7. I can't find my wallet _____ .
8. Would you like _____ milk in your coffee?

Complete the dialogues by filling in some, any, many, much, little or few.

1. A: Is there _____ juice left?
   B: Yes, there's a _____ left.

2. A: There were too _____ people at the meeting, weren't there?
   B: Yes, _____ people didn't even have a seat.

3. A: We don't have _____ sugar, I'm afraid.
   B: That's OK. I only want a _____ bit.

4. A: The airline said that they don't have _____ economy class seats left, but they have a _____ in business class.
   B: How _____ more will that cost?

5. A: Do we have _____ more potatoes?
   B: Yes, I think there are a _____ left. How _____ would you like?